

QUEENSLAND CENTRE FOR PUBLIC HEALTH

An initiative of Griffith University, Queensland University of Technology and the University of Queensland.
Supported by the Commonwealth Department of Health and Ageing and Queensland Health.

Public health careers and study evening

Wednesday November 7 2007, 5.30 pm-7.00 pm
Room 2.16, Griffith Graduate Centre
Griffith University, South Bank campus

You are invited to attend a Public Health Careers and Study Evening. Brief talks will be provided by academics, employers groups, professional associations and graduates.

Program

- 5.00 pm Refreshments: tea, coffee and sandwiches.
- 5.30 pm Introduction to public health study and career opportunities
Prof Don Stewart Director, QCPH
- 5.45 pm Academic careers in public health—
Dr Stella Stevens Griffith University
Dr Thomas Tenkate, Queensland University of Technology
Dr Maria Donald, University of Queensland
- 6.00 pm Career pathways at Queensland Health
Ms Sophie Dwyer Acting Senior Director, Population Health Branch, Queensland Health
- 6.10pm Careers in non-government organisations
Lisa Naumann Queensland Cancer Council
- 6.20 pm MPH past student perspective
- 6.30pm Introducing the Public Health Association
Dr Peter Anderson

RSVP:
E-mail: qcph@griffith.edu.au
Ph: (07) 37353241

Queensland Centre for Public Health

